Cheuribotey fields hit by hailstorm

NANDU DUTRAJ

SINGTAM, March 13: Monday's rain and hailstorm has caused massive damage to large tracts of agricultural land in Cheuribotey village, West

Pendam. The downpour and hailstones damaged standing crops and vegetables cultivated by the local villagers who are said to have incurred a major loss. They have demanded that the concerned officials take stock of the damage and provide compensation as immediate relief. Vegetables like broccoli, cabbage, tomato, chillies, radish and green leafy vegetables were damaged.
