

Slide damages houses in Khop

SE Report

GANGTOK, June 23: At least a dozen houses have been damaged due to a rain triggered landslide at Khop ward of Rabongla, south district on Friday night. Large tracts of farmland have also been destroyed after the cliff above slipped. Sources said the damaged houses are among those recently constructed REDRH houses. The affected families spent sleepless night following the landslide and no officials are said to have reached the slide-hit area.
