

Army rescues 8 buried by landslide at 17 Mile

Summit Times

SUMMIT REPORT

GANGTOK, 15 JUN:

Hheavy rains in the last two days caused havoc at 17 Mile as a landslide destroyed the camp set up by National Highway authorities in the area.

Responding swiftly to the situation, troops of Black Cat Division of the Indian Army evacuated 8 civilians buried under the debris.

All of them were treated at the nearest Military Hospital; however, one person succumbed to his injuries at the Military Hospital.